

MOTOR PARTIES SEE PISTOL DUEL BETWEEN POLICE AND SUSPECTS

Auto Commandeered and Alleged Wire Thieves Are Captured After Battle

A half dozen automobile parties, in which were a number of women, witnessed a revolver battle between Kearny, N. J., policemen and telephone wire thieves on the Hackensack Meadows near the Belleville Turnpike between 8 and 10 o'clock last night.

The operations of the copper wire thieves on the New York-Chicago line were detected by means of a delicate instrument in the office of the New York Telephone Company. Mes- sages were sent at once to the police of both Jersey City and Kearny.

Two patrol wagons with policemen set out from Kearny, one on the Belleville and one on the Newark turnpike. Four policemen scrambled from the slow-going patrol wagon on the Belleville pike and jumped to the running board of an auto in which were two men and two women. The auto was sent ahead at top speed and overtook two men carrying wire.

The policemen leaped to the road and called to the wire bearers to halt. Instead of surrendering, however, the two men opened fire on the police- men. The officers drew their revolvers and replied. Other automobiles, coming up, stopped and watched the battle as it progressed across the Meadows, many shots being ex- changed.

The fugitives were captured just as the patrol wagon clanked upon the scene. They were taken back to Kearny Police Headquarters, where they said they were Theodore and Henry Pfeiffer, brothers, of Hoboken. The stolen wire, coiled, was found beside the road near where the men were caught.

SEES PAIR HOLD UP MEN.

Policemen Fire in Hot Chase and Fugitives Are Caught.

Following two suspicious looking men to-day Patrolman Bracken of the Bedford Avenue police station saw them strike Adolph Pender of No. 75 West Street, Williamsburg, near Pender's home, and demand money. Bracken rushed up and the men ran into the freight yard of a terminal company a few blocks away. After Bracken had wound them up, fired two shots. One of the men stopped and the other was caught by a watchman in the yard. They said they were Harry McKee of No. 19 Floyd Street, Williamsburg, and Stanley Ortonski, eighteen, of No. 107 Newell Street, Williamsburg.

Advise Lime for Tuberculosis

According to the Journal of the American Medical Association (July 27, 1912, Page 308), Dr. C. F. D. of Minneapolis holds that a "deficiency of calcium" (lime) is responsible for the physical conditions which lead to tuberculosis, "and the therapy he advocates rests on this basis."

One of the reasons for the widespread success of Eckman's Alternative in the treatment of tuberculosis and chronic throat and bronchial troubles is its ability to supply this deficiency.

It contains a lime salt in such form and so combined with other remedial agents as to be easily assimilated by the average person. There are on record many cases in which it seems to have effected complete and lasting betterment.

However, we make no exaggerated claims for Eckman's Alternative. We prefer that it be tried on the same basis one tries any other prescription, and we have it will help, for IT HAS HELPED in many cases.

It contains no opiates, narcotics or habit-forming drugs. Therefore, it is safe to take. If your druggist is out of it, he will order, or you can get it direct.

POLICE ON HORSES IN THE SUBURBS TO GO

Patrolmen on Horses and Motor Cycles to Replace Them.

Wards Announces

As I was coming out here to- night," said Commissioner of Police Arthur Woods, speaking last night in the first Congressional Church, Flushing, L. I., "I nearly ran down three mounted policemen who were having a quiet little confab at a dark spot on Broadway.

"I was late in leaving the city, and was coming along Broadway as fast as the law allows. We did not see the policemen, but they had no difficulty distinguishing the 15 ft. on the car, and they left the spot even faster than the law allows.

"It is not easy to keep track of mounted policemen, and for that reason we are considering putting into effect a law that we have worked out for a long time.

"We intend in the suburbs to substitute for the mounted men men on bicycles and motor-cycles, who will have to report at regular hours to telephone booths where they will be called up. In that way the station house can keep track of them very easily."

ART TREASURES IN A TENEMENT ROOM

Precious Old Masters Said to Be Found in Home of Dead
Recluse.

CHICAGO, March 29.—James F. Bishop, Public Administrator for Cook County, made a hurried trip in a motor car yesterday to No. 568 Cass Street, the dingiest of a dingy row of north side rooming houses. In a 22 week room, on the top floor, rear, he found an unprotected litter of un- framed, age-cracked canvases which were reported to him as a valuable mine of old masters.

The room was that in which Louis Holman, septuagenarian recluse, died last Friday after a stroke of paraly- sis. When Bishop left it he carried with him paintings, whose value, he had been informed, was several hun- dred thousands of dollars.

There was what was said to be a long lost Rembrandt—"Solomon and the Queen of Sheba." Another was "Apollo and the Muses," variously credited to Annibale Caracci and to Rubens. Still another was a price- less old drawing by Albrecht Durer, "Christ on the Cross."

GIRL SHINS TELEPHONE POLE

Climbs Through Window to Escape
From Burning Building.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., March 29.— Hemmed in by flames which cut off all escape by the stairway from the second story of the building where she was employed as telephone operator, Miss Mary Moody, of Saluda, crawled across a plank to a telephone pole, by means of which she descended to the ground.

One end of the plank was placed on a cross-arm on the telephone pole and the other end on the window sill.

Fire in Justice Wells's Home.

Fire in a clothes hamper in the home of Municipal Court Justice Frederick W. Wells, No. 24 East sixty-third Street, yesterday destroyed a number of valuable Japanese silks and tapestries. Firemen extinguished the blaze.

COHAN GETS $100,000 FOR NEW FRIARS' HOME INSIDE HALF AN HOUR

Uses a Dinner as a Lure for His Intended Victims and Then Takes Their Subscriptions.

George M. Cohan gave a demonstra- tion last night of how easy it is for some people to raise money when they really try. Mr. Cohan, an Abbot of the Friars, was host at a dinner given at the club house. When all had finished of the refreshments he explained that, while he was very fond of their society, the real reason for the dinner was to raise money with which to provide the Friars with a new home. In less than half an hour he had secured subscriptions to a proposed bond issue totalling nearly $100,000.

Mr. Cohan explained that 6 per cent. would be paid on the money invested and then called for volunteers. James Buchanan Brady immediately started the ball a rolling with a subscription of $500. Later he made it $1,000. E. H. Hume subscribed $500, Irving Berlin, $500; Harrison Fisher, $500; James H. Hackett, $500; George Kline, $500; Gus Hill, $500; Mar- cus Lewis, $500; A. J. Levy, Daniel Friedman, A. H. Woods, Frank V. Strauss, Joseph Brooks, J. P. Miller, David A. Carter, Joseph H. Hackett, A. Jacobs, Jean Schwartz, Hans Robert, Samuel Wolf, Louis Levitt, Charles Thorley, Sylvan Levy, John Butler, Max Himmelfarb, Leo Frank, Ben Frank, C. S. Hargley, Harry Barth, Jesse Eddy, Joseph Wickers and Joseph H. Dixon subscribed $1,000 each. There were many subscriptions ranging from $500 down to $100.

The Friars own the lots at Nos. 106, 8-10 West Forty-eighth Street on which are three old buildings. Orig- inally it was the intention to remodel these structures but on generous was the outpouring of money at the dinner last night that it will probably mean an entirely new club house. The Board of Governors will meet soon to decide this matter.

George M. Cohan, Sam H. Harris, Jack Gleason and William Collier did not subscribe last night but promised substantial additions to the fund. It is believed the subscription of Cohan & Harris will equal if not surpass that of Mr. Brady.

MIDNIGHT BRINGS SONG AND BEAUTY TO DINERS.

Company at Bustanoby's Presents
Tuneful Whirl of Melodies and Dances.

There are eight very pretty girls in the new "Midnight Musical Dream" which starts at 11:30 every night at Bustanoby's at Sixth Street and Broadway, and goes in a whirl for an hour. It's called "Keep Smiling," and it does.

In any scale of pulchritude they'd get an easy 100. There are four blondes and four brunettes. That's eminently fair. Those who prefer blondes will look with most favor upon Betty Hite, Miriam Molloy, Crissy Jones and Helen Kiesel. Those with a leaning toward the darker sternerwood will be delighted with Lulu Davis, Evelyn Rosewood, Yvonne Shielton and Muriel Griel.

The night's performance is divided into two "Smiles," with a brief in- termission. In each there is an abundance of singing and dancing.

SIR EDWIN ARNOLD'S SON RESUMES FAMILY NAME

After Failure in England He Became "J. B. Lindon" Here—
Had Success as Writer.

CHICAGO, March 29.—The son of the late Sir Edwin Arnold more than four- teen years ago went into the real estate business in England, but the Boer War brought failure and he came to the United States. Later he was accused of embezzlement and returned to England to face a jury which freed him.

However, he saw no opportunity to succeed in England with the reality hanging over him and he came to America, changing his name to J. B. Lindon. After gaining a reputation as a lecturer and writer, he concluded in Chi- cago on Friday last to resume a family name to which he felt he could at last bring some honor.

NEW YORK BUSINESS MEN FOUND TO BE WEAKLINGS

West Side Y. M. C. A. Directors
Start Special Course to Help Them Develop.

Hundreds of New York business men, not more than forty years old, are in worse physical condition than their grandfathers, according to the directors of the West Side Young Men's Christian Association in Fifty-seventh Street, after 2,000 men had been examined. At the association there will be a course of lec- tures, beginning next month, de- signed to help them to become strong and keep strong, and Physical Director Dr. Louis H. Weitzman will give each man a thorough physical examination, point out his particular weak points and indicate the exercises he should take.

Among the lecturers for the course are Prof. Henry C. Sherman of Colum- bia, Prof. C. E. A. Winslow, curator of the American Museum of Natural His- tory, A. H. Laughlin, Superintendent of the Eugene Meyer Laboratory, Dr. A. Knopf, Prof. Irving Fisher, Yale; Dr. Luther H. Gulick, Dr. Eugene Ly- man Fisk, Dr. B. H. Hittelman, Dr. James J. Walsh, Henry Smith Williams and Dr. W. G. Anderson of Yale.

KILLED A CAT AND GOES TO JAIL FOR SIXTY DAYS

Wall, Angered When Fined for Shooting Animal That Kept Him
Awake, Refuses to Pay.

PHILADELPHIA, March 29.—William Wall of No. 89 Lombard Street was fined $10 by Acting Judge Hulme in the Second District Police Court yesterday for killing a neighbor's cat with a bullet, because the cat would not let him sleep. "I'll rot in jail before I'll pay that fine," yelled Wall at the court. He is now sentenced to sixty days in the Mercer County Jail, where he can stay, the court declared, until he pays the fine. "I'll take a chance," was Wall's com- ment, as he was led to a cell.

Friends of prisoners wish to pay the fine, but he declares he will live on bread and water for the next two months in his cell before he will yield.

GIRL'S PALMS OF SEX FOR WAIFS IN PAIR

Maid to Bitter Dislike the Tokens and the Crowd Gladly Takes Them

A little after 10 o'clock yesterday morning, when the benches in City Hall Park were full of school children and more ready willing to work, a girl of sixteen years, dressed in blue and carrying a number of palm leaves, was walking among the crowd. She was looking for a place to sit and then she saw a boy who had a trace of fear and she went to him. She took the leaves and offered them to him in the effort to get him to sit down. She was a crowd of about twenty children and she was sitting on the ground. She was a crowd of about twenty children and she was sitting on the ground.
